

Game Shows Are Winners with your Guests Which Means a Jackpot for Your Event

Rocket Fuel for Your Extensive Event

They're hot. Prime time game shows such as "Who Wants To Be A Millionaire", "Weakest Link", and "Greed", are drawing millions of viewers. Reality Shows like "Survivor", "American Idol", "The Apprentice" and many others are taking game shows to new heights.

For the ultimate in entertainment and the best in audience interaction, book modified forms our game shows that get everyone involved.

Game shows are great for events where you want something special, where people may not or probably won't dance, where karaoke wouldn't be appropriate, and you don't want your guests to go home just eating and listening to a speech. Game shows are great for all ages, all demographics, and all types of atmospheres. Want to make it relevant? We can customize it to your organization or guest of honor. They can be hyper interactive or very refined and corporate. A game show will take your event from boring to soaring.

You can book a game show for all or part of your social event and you can have extra DJ type music before and after.

Not So Trivial Applications

- ◆ Weddings—game shows make a great add on to your wedding. Use it to excite the guests during your rehearsal dinner, add some background activity to your cocktail hour, or as a way to enhance the meal time. Sunday and afternoon weddings are always a harder time to get them to dance. Try a game show and then some dancing. Material about the Bride and Groom make it personal.
- ◆ Bar/Bat Mitzvahs— great cocktail hour or add on
- ◆ Holiday Parties— give them a present, book a game show
- ◆ Corporate Parties - boring weekday parties and picnics or events without alcohol can benefit when they need something but probably won't dance. See Corporate flyers.
- ◆ Picnics—turn those hot summer days into trivia and games time. Corporate weekly picnics usually just involve eating and some drinking. Add a mini game show to make it more fun.
- ◆ Milestone Events—Birthdays, Anniversaries, Graduations, Retirements, Communions, Sweet Sixteen's and more Surprise the guest of honor and get people laughing. We'll customize them.
- ◆ General Residential Parties—throwing a party at a house or hall "just because". Invite friends and family for a game show night. We even have smaller budget / smaller stage programs to fit right in.
- ◆ Anything Else You Can Think Of - game shows fit in everywhere. Tell us what you want . We can make it happen.
